SILK PAPER

This box was purchased by a Cleveland, Ohio collector shortly after it was manufactured - probably because of the stamp, later when he became a stamp dealer, this box and other things accumulated in the early years found their way to Swift & Courtney & Beecher Co.

MICHAEL DAILY, AN IMMIGRANT BOY STILL IN HIS TEENS, WAS IN 1860 TAKEN ON THE BOAT FROM IRELAND AND PUT TO WORK IN JAMES CONNOLLY'S MATCH FACTORY IN PHILADELPHIA. IN 1866, DAILY AND ONE MCGUIAN, A FELLOW EMPLOYEE, SET UP FOR THEMSELVES AS MCGUIAN & DAILY CO. DAILY WAS ONE OF THE FOUR WHO USED THE PRIVATE DIE MATCH STAMPS BEARING THE FAMILIAR PORTRAIT OF BENJAMIN FRANKLIN.

IN 1872 THE BUSINESS WAS SOLD TO THE SWIFT & COURTNEY & BEECHER CO. DAILY REMAINED HIS MANAGER FOR SOME YEARS.

FROM THIS STAMP PRINTED ON WATER-MARKED PAPER IT SEEMS PROBABLE THAT THESE MATCHES WERE MANUFACTURED IN THE EARLY 1860'S - POSSIBLY AFTER THE BUSINESS BECAME A PART OF THE DIAMOND MATCH COMPANY ON DEC. 5, 1860.

PRIVATE PROPRIETARY COLLATERAL

These collections have been assembled over many years by Henry Holcombe, and undoubtedly constitute the finest collections of their type that have ever been formed.

It is almost impossible to convey in words the scope and magnitude of these collections, and only a close examination will give a proper appreciation of the comprehensive coverage of the subjects that Mr. Holcombe has accomplished.

Portions of the collections have been shown at the Stamp Centennial Exposition in Chicago in 1940, and later the same year at the New York Worlds Fair.

They have been accorded major awards in international competition at Tipeg 1936, at Cipez 1947 and at Fipez 1956.

An unprecedented opportunity for the collector, and collections fully worthy of museum display.

837 MATCH COLLATERAL

Beautifully mounted and written up in four post binders with slip cases.

The collection consists of over seventy original match packages or wrappers, mostly with the original stamp affixed, Civil War revenues as well as proprietary match stamps.

In the majority of instances, examples of the original matches are shown, together with photos of the original containers and details as to their discovery. The containers are mostly illustrated, many in multi-color, and do much to enhance the attractiveness of the presentation.

There are over twenty original advertising covers, 1860-1880, of match firms, with a wide variety of invoices, advertising, newspaper clips, photos of manufacturing plants, labels, off-cover match proprietaries, a number of foreign items, and a few modern match labels.

A great deal of information regarding the history of the manufacturers, as well as details on the products, is included.

An examination of the collection will make it easy to understand why this outstanding assemblage has taken major awards in international competition, and it is easily the most authoritative presentation of the subject ever made.

838 MEDICINE COLLATERAL

An amazingly comprehensive collection, beautifully mounted and written up on card leaves in ten post binders with slip cases, and forming what virtually amounts to a pictorial history of the nineteenth century American proprietary medicine business.

There are well over one hundred original medicine packages or wrappers, nearly all with revenue stamps, mostly private proprietary issues, many with photographs or drawings of the containers and information about the manufacturers and their products. There are 300 advertising covers of medicine companies, many with colorful illustrations, including some very scarce items, and dating as far back as the 1840s. 250 advertising trade cards, almost entirely in multicolor, seventy almanacs issued by medicine companies 1850-1920, and about 250 advertising circulars, inserts, testimonials, circulars, labels, letters, invoices, USIR licenses, many illustrated, as well as many uncounted clippings from magazines and newspapers of the period.

It is difficult to imagine the scope of the collection, which is without doubt the finest array of its type that has ever been assembled. A sure prize winner in any competition.

MEDICINE COLLATERAL

Interesting collection mounted on three ring pages and loose in folders in large carton, being a continuation of the previous collection. There are 34 revenues on original container, the majority Spanish-American War issues, but including private proprietary and 1st and 2nd federal proprietary issues as well. There is also a large variety of original wrappers, 1883-1898, when revenue stamps were not required, as well as a quantity of 20th century packages, some as late as the 30's, from the same manufacturers, and in many cases showing little or no change in packaging over a period of more than sixty years. There are over sixty covers, 20 books or almanacs, advertising cards, labels, advertising circulars, newspaper clippings, etc. A fascinating lot.

Est. Value $500-750

PERFUME COLLATERAL

Beautifully mounted and written up on card leaves in post binder.

Includes nine original wrappers, nearly all in multicolor with original stamp, some with full size sketch of the original container. Most of the wrappers display very high quality art work.

In addition there are 21 advertising covers, 1850s-1890s of perfume manufacturers, mostly illustrated, also eight pieces of advertising, twenty four multicolor advertising cards and other items.

A choice, colorful, and very handsome collection.

Est. Value $200-250

PLAYING CARD COLLATERAL

Mounted on card leaves and loose. Includes three original wrappers with proprietary playing card stamps, and three with Spanish American War playing card issues, advertising covers, 1883-1903, of Caterson Brotz, New York Consolidated, Carl Fabrique, and US Playing Card Co. (3 diff.) mostly illustrated.

India Proofs of 4, 10c Dougherty, photo of unissued Caterson Brotz, a nice variety of 18th century French playing cards, including revolutionary issues.

Two uncut sheets of 48 French game cards, circa 1810, each with eagle wmk. and attributed to the painter David. Two of the wrappers also have examples of the original cards.

Four full page outline drawings of spade, heart, diamond and club, each filled with nicely arranged private proprietary card stamps, totalling 118 stamps.

There are a few modern clippings included. Colorful and fascinating lot.

Est. Value $150-200

IS YOUR COLLECTION FOR SALE?

REALIZE IMMEDIATE CASH
PLUS THE ADDED ADVANTAGE OF
SELLING THROUGH OUR AUCTIONS

We will advance immediate cash up to 75% of our appraisal value, of what your collection should realize at auction. There is no interest charge.

Your collection will then be sold in one of our coming auction sales. All stamps are expertly and advantageously lotted in attractive, well illustrated catalogs. Lotting is meticulously planned under our personal supervision. Commission is 20% of the gross realization. There is no lotting fee or any other charges. Final settlement is made within five weeks after the sale. We have been continuously conducting stamp auctions in the United States for over thirty-four years.

Valuable collections and stamp holdings are especially wanted, but we will accept properties valued from $500 upwards. Send all stamps direct for appraisal. Auction advance will be remitted shortly after receipt. If not entirely pleased, stamps will be returned at our expense. If circumstances warrant, due to bulk or value, we will travel anywhere to inspect important properties.
