MICHIGAN, MICHIGAN

The Award-Winning Milton L. Greenebaum Collection

The following twelve lots comprise one of the rarest and most interesting areas of Michigan Postal History. In 1847 the Capitol was moved from Detroit to the township of Lansing. The name officially chosen was Michigan, Michigan and the Post Office was established April 27, 1847. Less than a year latter, however, it was decided to change the name to Lansing, and this was officially done on April 3, 1848. Few covers are known bearing the "Michigan, Michigan" postmark. All of the following are postmarked between January 5 and March 12, 1848.

May those Northern fanatics, who abuse
their Southern neighbors, Approach near enough to feel the point of our sabres;
May they come near enough to hear the
click of a trigger,
And learn that a white man is better than a nigger.
