FOREWORD

One of the pleasures of the philatelic auctioneer is the opportunity to deal with great collections, to see how they are put together and to appreciate the philatelic knowledge that made them possible. With the Paul C. Rohloff collection I have had this opportunity to the highest degree. This Collection, winner of Five Gold Medals in International competition and Twelve Grand Awards, epitomizes intelligent and scholarly collecting. Many years ago, when the collecting of postal history was a little known art, Paul began putting together the collection which we are now offering at Public Sale. Rare off-cover multiples, seldom seen combinations, unique usages, and covers of exceptional beauty, all selected with a discerning eye, round out this remarkable holding. A lot by lot examination would be necessary to appreciate truly the magnitude of this achievement.

I would like to take this opportunity to pay tribute not only to a great Collection, but also to a great Collector and good Friend. Paul is a member of the Austin Philatelic Club, Chicago Collectors Club, Classics Society, a Fellow of the Royal Philatelic Society, Chicago Philatelic Society, New York Collectors Club, Western Cover Society, American Philatelic Society, Society of Philatelic Americans, British Caribbean Philatelic Society, and the British North American Society. He was recently the recipient of the Chicago Philatelic Society "Newbury Award". He is very fortunate in that his wife Millie not only helped and encouraged him in his collecting, but has formed a magnificent collection of her own. He is a friend to all collectors, and was privileged to know first-hand such well-known Philatelists as Stanley P. Ashbrook, Emerson Krug, Edgar Jessup, Delores and Dr. Jay Hertz, Ben Newman, Dr. Clarence Hennan, Tony Russo, Richard Cabeen and many others.

Even though he is disposing of his 1847-1867 material, Paul still retains an active interest in Philately.
