Conditions of Sale for Autographs

---

The property described in this catalogue will be offered at public auction by Robert A. Siegel Auction Galleries, Inc. ("Galleries") on behalf of various consignors and itself or affiliated companies. By placing a bid on any lot, the bidder acknowledges acceptance of and will be bound to these Conditions of Sale.

1. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the buyer. The term "final bid" means the last bid acknowledged by the auctioneer, which is normally the highest bid offered. The purchase price payable by the buyer will be the sum of the final bid and a commission of 10% of the final bid ("buyer's premium"), together with any sales tax or use tax which may be due on the sale.

2. The auctioneer has the right to reject any bid, to advance the bidding at his discretion and, in the event of a dispute between bidders, to determine the successful bidder, to continue the bidding or to reoffer and resell the lot in dispute. The Galleries' record of the final sale shall be conclusive.

3. All bids are per numbered lot in the catalogue unless otherwise announced by the auctioneer at the time of sale. The right is reserved to group two or more lots, to withdraw any lot or lots from the sale, or to act on behalf of the seller. The Galleries will execute bidding instructions on behalf of clients, but will not be responsible for any errors in the execution of such bids.

4. Lot numbers followed by the symbol ° are offered subject to one or more of the following conditions: (i) the lot is subject to a minimum final bid ("reserve"), below which it will not be sold, (ii) the Galleries have advanced monies to the seller and have a financial interest in the lot, (iii) the Galleries have guaranteed the seller a minimum sale price, and (iv) the Galleries may have ownership interest in the lot, either in part or whole. The absence of the symbol ° means that the lot is offered without reserve.

5. Any lot, the description of which is obviously incorrect, is returnable, but only if the lot is returned within 14 days of receipt. All disputed lots must be returned intact with the original packing material. The following lots may not be returned for any reason: Lots containing ten or more items; lots from buyers who have registered for the pre-sale exhibition or received lots by postal viewing, thereby having had the opportunity to inspect them before the sale; any lot described with "faults" or "defects" may not be returned because of any fault or defect.

6. Successful bidders, unless they have established credit with the Galleries prior to the sale, must make payment in full before the lots will be delivered. Buyers not known to the Galleries must make payment in full within three days from the date of sale. The Galleries retain the right to demand payment at the time the lot is knocked down to the highest bidder, for any reason whatsoever. In the event that any buyer refuses or fails to make payment in cash for any lot at the time it is knocked down to him, the auctioneer reserves the right to reoffer the lot immediately for sale to the highest bidder.

7. If the purchase price has not been paid within the time limit specified above, nor lots taken up within seven days from the date of sale, the lots will be resold by whatever means deemed appropriate by the Galleries, and any loss incurred from resale will be charged to the defaulting buyer. Any account more than thirty days in arrears will be subject to a late payment charge of 1½% per month as long as the account remains in arrears. Any expenses incurred in securing payment from delinquent accounts will be charged to the defaulter.

8. All lots are sold as genuine. Any lot proven to be other than genuine by a competent authority may be returned for a refund of the purchase price and buyer's premium. The Galleries shall have no additional liability under any circumstances.

9. Until paid for in full, all lots remain the property of the Galleries on behalf of the seller.

10. Agents executing bids on behalf of clients will be held responsible for all purchases made on behalf of clients unless otherwise arranged prior to the sale.

11. The buyer assumes all risk for delivery of purchased lots, and agrees to pay for all out-of-pocket costs incurred in shipping.

La Grange 13 juillet 1816

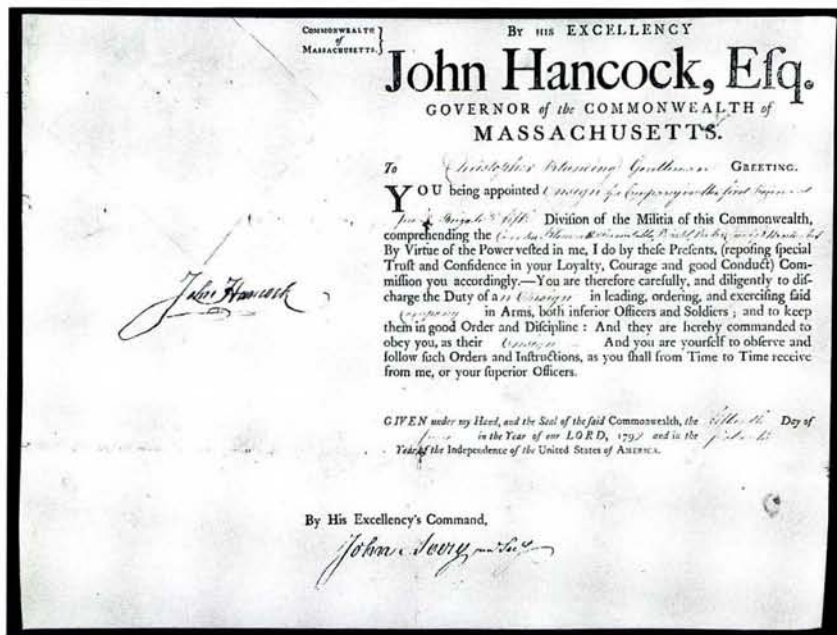

Je reviens plus à Paris, Monsieur, et je n'y retournerai que dans deux ou trois semaines; il serait trop tard pour faire bonne connaissance. Mon fils ne sera pas moins en mesure que moi de s'occuper de vos intérêts; mais il sera ici jusqu'à la passage de son grand-père que nous attendons au commencement de la semaine prochaine.
Je lui donne que il vous envoie d'abord écrire au ministre. Je lui ai dit avec quelle amitié et quelle confiance il m'avait parlé de vous et de vos droits. J'ai bien lieu d'espérer que le qui dépend de lui sera fait; mais j'ai moi-même bien à lui parler que j'ai pu y continuer, et si vos affaires n'étaient pas terminées à mon prochain voyage de Paris je les finirai avec bien du zèle. Agrée l'assurance de la haute estime et de la haute sincère attachement

Extract of a letter from James Madison to Th: Jefferson dated June 14. 1795. Orange.

' just about the close of the session I wrote a coercive letter to Dohrman on the subject of his debt to Marrei. he answered that he was, just on the receipt of it, about to let me know, that the success of some of his efforts would soon enable him to close the business. my departure obliged me to put it into the hands of Beechley who was going to N. York, from whom I learn that D. suspends the payment till a liquidation of the debt can be made, but with an apparent ability & purpose to avoid any delay beyond that. it seems that D. has receipts for past payments to Marrei subsequent to his deed of trust to me, & alleges with some probable reason that the sum in the deed was not the real amount of the debt, but a round one fully covering & securing the maximum. There are some points also relating to the rate of damages & interest on the protested bills on which there may be room for negotiation as well as I recollect both were to be settled according to the laws of N. York, not of Virginia, whether binding in the case or not, in consideration of the indulgence shown him. I have urged a payment immediately of as much as may be due according to his own showing. but have received no answer.

And he is further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, to forbear to raise, or to discharge, after they shall be raised, the whole or any part of the said three additional regiments, in case events shall in his judgment, render his so doing consistent with the public safety.

And he is further enacted, That the President be, and he hereby is authorized, from time to time, to call into service, and for such periods as he may deem requisite, such number of cavalry as, in his judgment, may be necessary for the protection of the frontiers: Provided, That the non-commissioned officers shall not be allowed more than one dollar per day, nor the privates more than seventy five cents per day, each person finding his horse, arms and accoutrements, and at his own risk, and twenty five cents per day in lieu of rations and forage: Provided he furnish himself therewith.

And he is further enacted, That the President alone be, and he hereby is authorized to appoint, for the cavalry to be engaged, the proper commissioned officers, who shall not exceed, in number and rank, the proportions allotted to the said three regiments, and whose pay and other allowances shall not, exclusively of fifty cents per day for the use and risk of their horses, exceed those of officers of corresponding rank, in the said regiments.

And he is further enacted, That the President of the United States be authorized, in case he shall deem the measure expedient, to employ such number of the Indians, and for such compensations, as he may think proper: Provided, The said compensations do not, in the whole, exceed twenty thousand dollars.

Dear Sir

I accept my sincere thanks for your friendly favor, without date; & for the cheerful manner of your meeting my request. At the time mentioned, before the district Judge & a circle of my friends, I propose to take the oath, & possibly to your information; & wish it should be requisite for public purposes, & be then at Washington, in which event, I shall claim no indulgence.

Nothing delights me more, than that prospect of paying my respects to my Virginian friends, & to yourself, & your lady in a particular manner. Long above sublimate friendship, & induces a due abstraction of its worth. Accept my best wishes & prospects, & all the unknown, present them to Mr. Madison - Yours very sincerely dear Sir - signed G. G.

W E Lockwood Esq. Corresponding Secretary of the Maritime Library Association. New York

Quincy 29 Oct. 1841

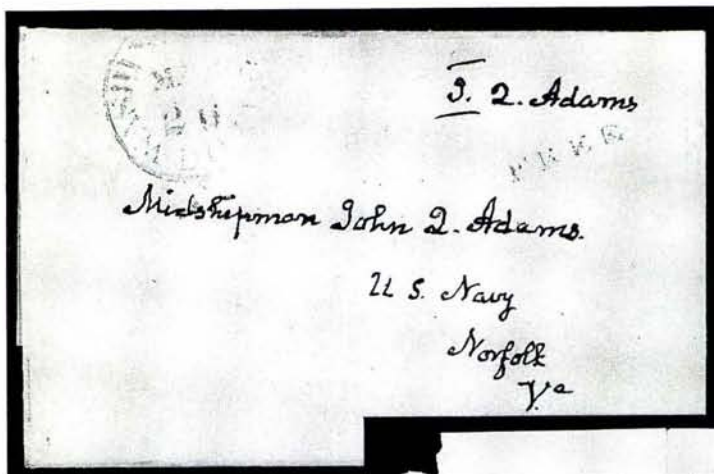

Sir

On the day of my departure from Washington for a short visit to my home, I caused to be inserted in the National Intelligencer a notification of my inability to comply with the numerous invitations which I had received, to deliver Lectures or addresses before Literary or Political Associations, among which was that received a very few days before in your respected Letter of 10 September, and to which an early answer was requested.

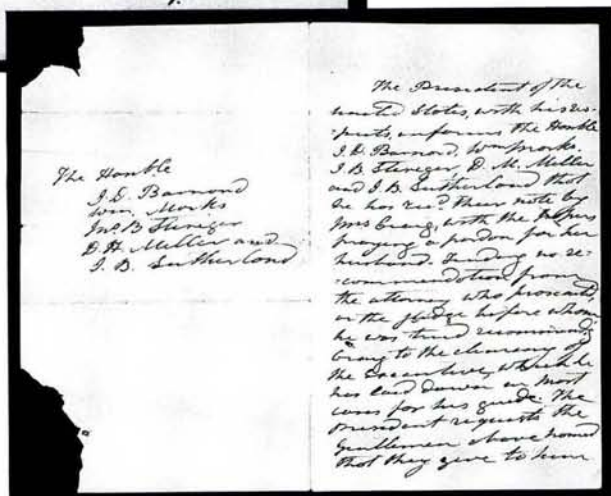

At the first moment of leisure that I have been able to command, I feel it to be a duty, specially to express to the Maritime Library Association of New York, my regret with which I am deprived of the pleasure which I should have enjoyed in addressing them.

I am, very respectfully, Sir your humble and obed<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

J. D. Adams.

He will be influenced very much by your advice; your long experience in that country will enable you to judge for the best. I will only add that I expect much good to result from your action in the premises, and sincerely hope that the mission of Mr. Usher may be accomplished. I have the honor to be Your Obt. Servt. A. Lincoln." In Aug. 1862 Minnesota was the scene of one of the worst Indian uprisings, touching off a series of wars that culminated in the Battle of Wounded Knee. The Sioux killed dozens of innocent settlers and were only stopped by Union forces under the direction of Gen. John Pope. 397 Sioux prisoners were sentenced to death; President Lincoln insisted on reading the full records of the trails and issued a personally written order listing only 39 that would indeed be sentenced to death. Winnam, O. Sept. 25, 1869.

Dear Sir,

Continued absence from home, and speaking nearly every day of this month on political topics have prevented me from answering your letter of Sept 6th in which you enclose a chapter on the history of Ancient Censuses - I am ~~not~~ at home only for a few hours, and have ~~not~~ had time to read only a part of the chapter - What I have read is excellent - I hope nothing will prevent you from finishing the work. The period of American Census history of which you speak is being prepared by Dr Hough, but I have no doubt the <sup>whole</sup> ~~whole~~ report would be more harmonious, if you would complete it as you suggest -

I greatly regret that I am compelled to give my time to general politics rather than to the Census - this month

In haste - I am, Truly Yours

a world's conference devoted to it.

"Nothing could be greater or finer than this. It is so great and so find that when the historian of the future shall speak of Theodore Roosevelt he is likely to say that he did many notable things, among them that of inaugurating the movement which finally resulted in the "square deal", but that his greatest work was inspiring and actually beginning a world movement for staying terrestrial waste and saving for the human race the things upon which, and upon which alone, a great and peaceful and progressive and happy race life can be founded. What statesman in all history has done anything calling for so wide a view and for a purpose more lofty?"

These are the views that Senator La Follette held of my Administration, and they must control as against anything that is now said of that administration. Mr. La Follette has an entire right to express an adverse opinion of anything I have done since the date of the article.

My dear Jim:

I receive constant demand or expression of hope for the formulation of more adequate, more realistic and more definite bases of peace policies. The issue is new since the last Party Conventions and will be at the door in another year. The subject should not be partisan, but the constructive views of Republicans would be helpful to the whole country.

It has occurred to me that it might be of some service to develop some of the ground of common agreement although it might not be a complete and final program.

Some twelve months ago Mr. Gibson and I published a book advancing some new ideas upon the subject. Those ideas received extraordinary support from all sections of the press, Democratic as well as Republican. The distribution of the book now exceeds by ten times any other peace book. I mention this because it may furnish a basis for examination of the subject.

We proposed wholly new approaches to the machinery for making lasting peace so as to avoid another debacle like Versailles. And we proposed new approaches to the long-view peace settlements.

The problem covers so many and such complicated issues that this single sheet of paper cannot do justice to the world. The road with foundation.

Merely interested I have the 58 paragraphs

HERBERT HOOVER

you a copy of this condensation, hoping that you would consent to read it and mark upon the margins those paragraphs to which you feel yourself in agreement. We may find important areas of agreement upon which some conclusions might be based.

I am writing you confidentially, and your reply will be held in confidence if you wish. I shall advise you what happens. I am sending you an extra copy of the pamphlet for you to keep. I am sending this letter out initially only to a limited list to see what the feeling is.

I am greatly in hopes that you can find time to advise me upon it. We may be able to find in this manner some common ground upon which we could advance the subject at least part way.

Yours faithfully,

Herbert Hoover

My Dear Gene:

Yours at hand. Glad from an evening. Bring Cassatt along if he will yield.

You can get her on Erie at 12:50 or 7:20. The latter makes it a little late to dress and get ready without fussing.

If you come via Columbus
you can leave there in evening train at 5:05 pm. and get her at 6:20, or Penn lines at 5 and get her at 6:40. Come to visit our plans. Will try to help find the time if you come early.
You can leave on Erie about 9:30 am.

Yours 719 Harding

COMMITTEE ON
 LABOR AND PUBLIC WELFARE
 Friday, May 8, 1953

Mr. Fred Martin
 26 Walnut Street
 Taunton, Massachusetts

Dear Fred:

Due to the amount of hard work which you did during the campaign, I have hesitated to further impose on your generous support. But, in the certain knowledge that you will not misunderstand my natural dependence on you for advice in regard to your territory, here goes.

Earlier in this session of Congress, I introduced in the Senate a Resolution calling for a Free Plebiscite to be held in the Territory of Trieste. Because of the natural interest of the people of Italian extraction in this problem I thought it would be well to send a copy of this Resolution, together with a statement I made at the time, to all of the Italian organizations throughout the State.

I have since found that apparently there is no one source which has a complete, up-to-date State list of Italian organizations. Consequently, I am writing to you at this time in the hope that you would find it possible to collect such a list of Italian organizations in your area, including the names and addresses of their directing officials. I could either send several hundred copies of the speech to each group - or I could send them to you and you might perhaps give them to the proper officials in the Clubs for distribution in your community.

While this is the first time this need for a current mailing list has come up, I feel sure that, as time goes on, it will be most helpful to have a list of other nationality group organizations and officials. So, again, if you find it convenient to do so, I would deeply appreciate all such further lists as you could send me. Besides these mailing lists, I would likewise appreciate very much hearing from you occasionally as to events or developments in your area (such as births, marriages, deaths, area issues, etc.) of which you feel I should be aware, and the names of people to whom I should write.

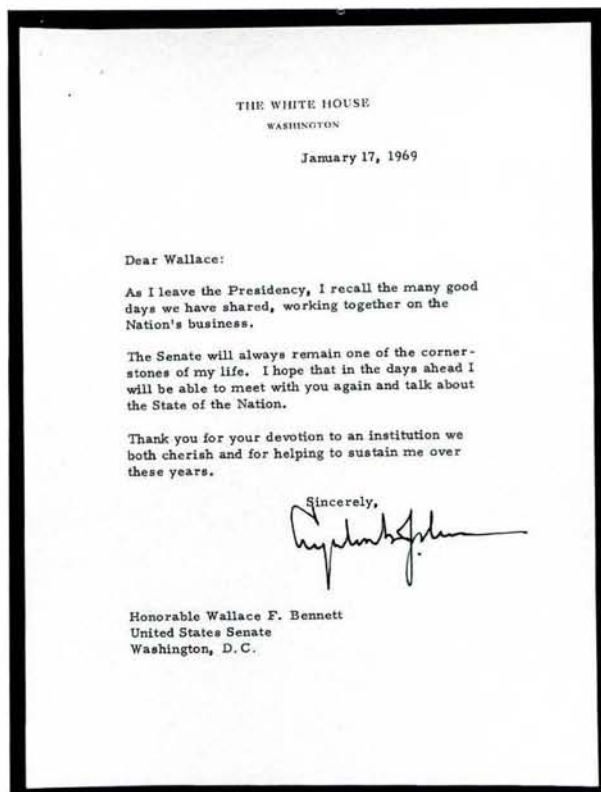

Many thanks again. I hope to see you this summer when we have plans for a get-together.

With every good wish.

Cordially,

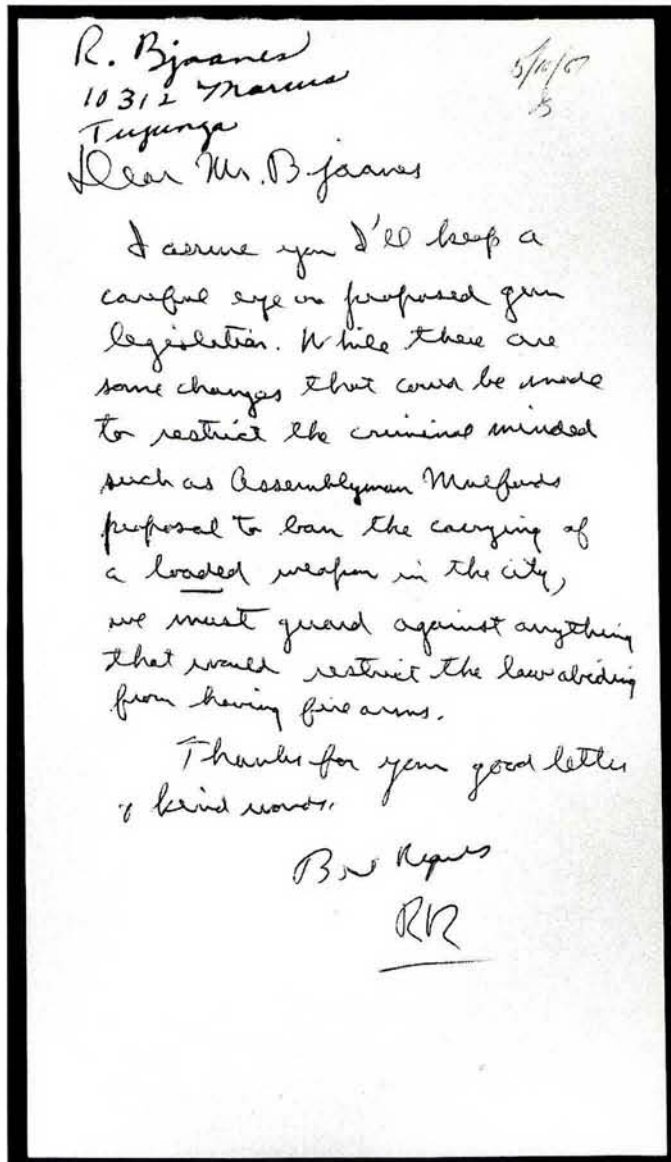

John F. Kennedy

Mrs. A. J. Brazell

Dear Sir,

I truly regret my inability to aid you in the manner suggested in your letter of the 29th ult.

Time and many intervening events,
together with the loss of all my papers left in Mississippi, render me unable to remember the names or find them in memoranda kept by me, of many with whom I was associated in Mexico

With all good wishes

I am, yours

In reply to that portion of your letter of yesterday, date relating to the sinks for the defence of James river, I will state that the report at Henry's Bluff is correct, with seven of our heaviest guns, well positioned, but not as perfectly good as we desire for want of time. The work here is progressing & I presume we shall have a few days before the return of the enemy which if properly improved much may be accomplished. To ensure this I was obliged to halt Gen. Mahone's Regt. at least that portion of it with him, at Henry's Bluff, place him in command & direct him to finish the work with speed. The batteries, mechanics, & Company of engineers arrived at the point that day before yesterday & could not be constructed by the day. Another winter paper I will admit to help on the river & report the movements of the enemy which gave rise to immense alarms & raised the spirits. The obstruction of the Channel of the river was progressing but not satisfactorily. On this side of the river a battery is under construction by Major Thomas at Warwick. Two other batteries a barrier has been commenced by sailing boats. These two guns are directed for this position. Major Shuman also projects a third gun battery on the left bank of the river opposite Stamps to unite with the battery at that point.

 Chapin's bluff on the left bank about 2 miles below is occupied by Col. Stewart's Va. regt. the upper camp is a light battery. I have supposed of questioning both positions. I mean this City it might not be in that vicinity. You will see by the reports of yesterday's fight that the enemy were driven back by the batteries with sufficient damage.

I telegraphed to you yesterday that Major Shuman desired the services of Capt. Haystack, Surgeon in Genl Magruder's Staff & in the Haystack a candidate if he can be spared by you.

I am most respectfully,
 your obedient servant

Headquarters, Cavalry Division,

Warrensburg, Mo., Nov. 24, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS,
No. 11.

Winslow's Brigade of Cavalry, commanded by Lieut. Col. Bentzen, being about to leave for another Department, the Major General Commanding takes this occasion, not only to express his regrets in separating from such glorious troops, but also to recall more especially than was done in General Orders No. 6 from these Headquarters, the splendid manner in which this Brigade fought at the Oage, capturing five pieces of Artillery from the enemy, with a large number of prisoners, and carrying by a daring charge the most important and conspicuous position on that brilliant field.

No troops could win a prouder record for themselves than they have done, and the best wishes of their comrades in the late campaign will accompany them wherever their services are required.

By Command of Major General Pleasanton.

CLIFFORD THOMSON

1st Lieut. & A. A. GEN'L.

1st Regt. Cavalry Division.

Warrensburg, Mo., Oct. 26, 1864.

Recd. Order
No. 11.

Ex.

The gallant action of Phillips' & of Brigade of Missouri Cavalry, and Winslow's Brigade, Commanded by Lieut. Col. Bentzen, in capturing it there;
sight of the enemy's guns on the Oage was so little pushed as to draw forage and camp upon the enemy.

By command of Major General Pleasanton.

Clifford Thomson, A. A. G. of Cavalry

through entrenchments manned by infantry,
and across the bridge over the Skottshatchie, which will ever rank among the most daring feats of Cavalry, closes the brilliant history of the 10th Missouri. You may well glory in your name and record.

Thanking you, your officers and men for the confidence reposed in me as a unit commander and for the zeal and devotion with which all my orders were obeyed -

I remain,

Yours very respectfully,

Signed, E. Upson,

RECEIVED
MAY - 1 1942

Dear Mr. Hawkins:

I appreciate the compliment in your request that I write something for the Navy Relief Society. I am sympathetic with the work of the Society but writing is one kind of support that I am unable to give. Since "Gone With the Wind" was published, I have been kept so busy I have had no opportunity to do any writing at all. As a result, I am completely out of practice and this would be the worst possible time for me to try to get into the swing again, for any spare minutes I have are already pledged to war activities of one kind or another.

My best wishes,

Sincerely,

Margaret Mitchell Marsh

The certified version from the office is not classified. When A. Greenwood was at my office, I spoke with him about Eden's declaration (but it was before my seeing the press version on the basis of which I wrote you my previous letter), and I told him: If England is truly obliged to come to our aid if we are attacked - why doesn't he treat us just as he treats any other ally of England - in the Atlantic, European or Trans-Jordanian pacts? Why isn't he ready to sign a written pact? Hence, there is a difference, and one cannot rely on his obscure declaration. . ." 486A° Indira Gandhi. Prime Minister of India (1966-1977 and 1980-1984), she was assassinated in October 1984 by members of her Sikh bodyguard resentful of her political action against the Sikhs (the assassination provoked a Hindu backlash resulting in the murder of 3000 Sikhs). May 7, 1966 to June 3, 1978. Various. A collection of approximately 40 letters—some typed and signed, many in Indira Gandhi's own hand—to her dear American friend Lucille Moore Kyle, a customs broker in Canada. Some chatty, gossipy, filled with family matters, as one would expect; many more are highly political in nature with comments on American and World politics in general. The final two or three letters are especially fascinating; they deal with the period of her political dethronement and de facto house arrest, lasting until popular support once more rallied behind the magic of her name and person and paved the way for her re-election in 1980. An extraordinary collection of letters by one of the world's foremost leaders during a particularly troubled period.
