AFTERNOON SESSION (LOTS 2001-2360)
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 18, 2003, AT 1:30 P.M.

WORLDWIDE FLIGHT COVERS FROM THE ESTATE OF JOHN F. LANGHOFF

TRANS-OCEANIC RECORD FLIGHTS

- 2001 ☒ 1919, Jan. 30 — Nassau to Miami (AAMC 1001). Three-line handstamped cachet “First Trip/Aeroplane/Nassau to Miami” on Bahamas 1p postal card to New Rochelle N.Y., Nassau Jan. 30 datestamp, pinholes at top left, still Very Fine, scarce, AAMC $200.00 ... E. 150-200
- 2002 ☒ 1919, June 14 — Alcock and Brown Transatlantic Flight, Newfoundland to Ireland (AAMC 1004). $1.00 on 15c Surcharge (C2) tied by St. John’s Jun. 10 machine cancel on flown cover to London, Jun. 17 receiving backstamp, vertical fold at center, otherwise Very Fine, only 197 covers flown, signed Heiman, AAMC $2,500.00 E. 1,000-1,500
- 2003 ☒ 1919, June 15 — “Handley Page” Attempted Transatlantic Flight from Newfoundland, Harbor Grace Mail (AAMC 1005a). Harbor Grace Jun. 14 circular datestamp, $1.00 on 15c Surcharge (C2) tied by St. John’s Jun. 9 machine cancel on corner card cover to Bristol, redirected to Cheltenham, vertical fold, slight creasing, small tear and reduced at top, Fine and scarce, signed Sanabria, AAMC $1,800.00 E. 1,000-1,500
- 2004 ☒ 1919, June 15 — “Handley Page” Attempted Transatlantic Flight from Newfoundland, Harbor Grace Mail (AAMC 1005a). Harbor Grace Jun. 14 circular datestamp, lightly cancelled $1.00 on 15c Surcharge (C2), rare “Atlantic Aerial Mail, Handley Page, Jun. 14, 1919” oval cachet on back of cover to Hawick, England, redirected to officer with North Russian Relief Force in Archangel, Russia, stained and water damaged, both sides affixed to inner card for support — aviators Kerr and Brackley abandoned their plans for a transatlantic flight after learning of Alcock and Brown’s success, they crash landed in Nova Scotia en route to New York, and mail intended for the R-34 dirigible flight arrived too late — the condition of this cover may be due to the crash, the forwarding to British forces in Archangel is extraordinary, AAMC $1,800.00 without premium for oval cachet E. 1,000-1,500

- 2005 ☒ 1919, July 17 — Third Attempted Transatlantic Flight by “Martinsyde”, Newfoundland to England, Supplementary Mail (AAMC 1008). Hotel corner card to England with $1.00 on 15c Surcharge, Without Comma After “Post” or Period After “1919” (C2b) tied by St. John’s Jul. 12 machine cancel, backstamped London Jan. 7, 1920, addressed in the hand of the “Martinsyde” mechanic, cover slightly creased, some toned spots, stamp has rounded corner and small faults

A FINE AND EXTREMELY RARE SUPPLEMENTARY MAIL COVER FROM THE THIRD “MARTINSYDE” ATTEMPT TO CROSS THE ATLANTIC. ONLY 25 COVERS WERE ADDED TO THE MAIL FOR THE JULY 17 FLIGHT, WHICH CRASHED ON TAKE-OFF.

The “Martinsyde” was rebuilt after the May 1919 crash. Major Raynham and his new navigator, Lieut. Biddlescombe, made another attempt on July 17, but the plane crashed during take-off. The mail bag, which contained 25 additional letters franked with the $1.00 Alcock-Brown stamp, was taken to England by Major Raynham but forgotten until the following January, which explains the Jan. 7 backstamp applied by the London post office.

Holcombe notation at bottom right. AAMC $2,500.00 without premium for the surcharge variety. E. 2,000-3,000

- 2006 ☒ 1919, Aug. 14 — First Airplane Delivery, Shor to Ship at Sea (AAMC 1009). 3c Victory tied by New York Aug. 14 duplex on Roessler "Winged Letters" cover to London, typed flight endorsement, receiving backstamp, Very Fine, AAMC $200.00..... E. 150-200
