EXTREMELY FINE GEM. AMONG THE FINEST ORIGINAL-GUM EXAMPLES OF THE 30-CENT 1861 ISSUE IN EXISTENCE. THE BRIGHT ORANGE SHADE IS EXTREMELY RARE IN ANY ORIGINAL-GUM CONDITION, AND THIS SUPERB EXAMPLE COULD WELL BE THE FINEST.

The narrowly-spaced 30c 1861 plate left very little room for the 12-gauge perforations between stamps. Consequently, examples with wide margins at sides are extremely rare — this fact is acknowledged in the Scott Catalogue footnote to No. 71. The stamp offered is one of the few known original-gum examples in a higher grade. Furthermore, the shade is typical of the earliest 1861 printing, distinguished by its brightness and yellow glow. We have seen very few original-gum examples of the early shade, and this is without question the finest we have handled.

EXTREMELY FINE GEM. AN EXTRAORDINARY MINT NEVER-HINGED 30-CENT 1879 AMERICAN BANK NOTE ISSUE. THIS ISSUE IS RARELY OBTAINABLE IN CHOICE MINT NEVER-HINGED CONDITION.

The 30c 1879 American Bank Note Company issue is surprisingly difficult to obtain in choice Mint N.H. condition. It is surprising because the 15c (Scott 189) is readily available. However, a survey of our photo records and auction library revealed the scarcity of well-centered 30c blocks from which singles could be harvested. The blocks in the Green sales were off center. Caspary had a well-centered hinged block of four, and Lilly had a block of nine with problems. The Moody block of six was well-centered, but appears to have had hinge remnants on all stamps. The Todd collection had two blocks, including one with a Mint N.H. pair at bottom (this has probably been broken, furnishing at least two Mint N.H. stamps). The Close collection had a well-centered block of four (with reinforcing) and a large plate block. The Siegel firm's three major Bank Note Issue sales (Braus, Hirschfield, Wunderlich) contained blocks, but all were either off center or had hinge remnants. A well-centered block of four appeared in our 1982 Rarities sale, but it was hinged.

FRESH AND FINE. THIS IS THE ONLY RECORDED MINT NEVER-HINGED EXAMPLE OF THIS ISSUE. ONE OF ONLY SEVENTEEN RECORDED UNUSED EXAMPLES, AND ONE OF ONLY TWO PAIRS CONTAINED IN OUR RECORDS.

Our census of Scott 423A, available at our website at: <http://siegelauctions.com/enc/census/423A/423A.htm>, contains nine unused singles, two vertical pairs and a block of four, for a total of seventeen unused copies. All genuine stamps are off-center, as is the example offered here.

This pair was included in our original census, based on the catalogue description from a 1946 Costales auction of the Colonel Green collection. This item was rediscovered by us when looking through several file cabinets of unused and used stamps in an estate collection.

UNITED STATES POSTAL HISTORY
REVOLUTIONARY WAR AND EARLY AMERICANA

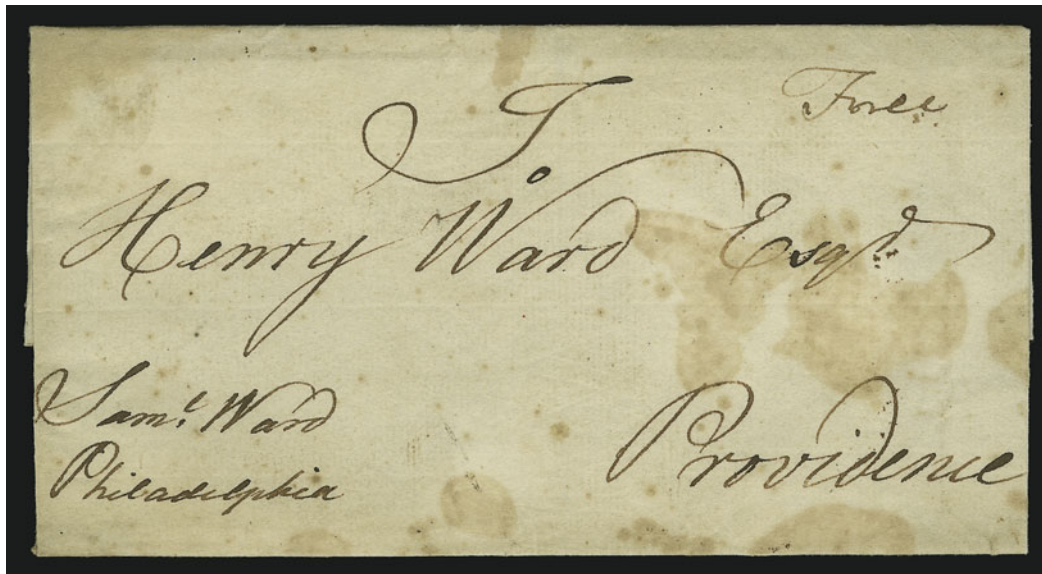

1788

1788 ☒ George Washington. Free frank "G. Washington" as Commanding General of the Continental Army on June 21, 1777 folded letter from Lt. Col. Robert H. Harrison (Secretary and Aide to General Washington) and addressed in his hand to Col. George Baylor (Washington's Aide-de-Camp from Aug. 1777 to Jan. 1778) "near Fredericksburg", additional ms. "Free", war-related content states (in part): "Gen. Howe has made a strange maneuver of late — after collecting his whole army about him and parade for 6 or 8 miles, he returned to Brunswick and I shall not be surprised if you won't ascertain that he has left New Jersey" and post-script "He encamped and fortified for 5 or 6 days and burned several houses in his return", opened and repaired incl. small mended hole to right of Washington's frank but not affecting it

A FINE AND RARE GEORGE WASHINGTON FREE FRANK AS COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE CONTINENTAL ARMY ON AN INTERESTING LETTER FROM THE NEW JERSEY CAMPAIGN.

As predicted in this letter, within days of June 19, 1777, the British Army evacuated New Brunswick, New Jersey, to Amboy, and returned to Staten Island. On June 20, George Washington notified Congress and General Schuyler of the New Jersey militia's success in forcing the British out of the state and of the British Army's failure to coerce New Jersey residents to pledge allegiance to the Crown. E. 5,000-7,500

1789

- 1789 ✉ Elbridge Gerry. Signer of Articles of Confederation, delegate from Massachusetts (Continental Congresses 1776-85) and Vice President, receipt docketing in his hand on Feb. 1, 1781 autograph letter signed by James Lovell, fellow delegate, to Gerry at Boston, sender's directions "fav'd by Mr. Otis", possibly referring to famed patriot James Otis (however, by this date he had severe mental problems, the long-term result of a beating by British customs officials), Very Fine E. 300-400
- 1790 ✉ Samuel Ward. Delegate from Rhode Island (First and Second Continental Congresses of 1774-76), ardent patriot and the only Colonial Governor to refuse to sign the Stamp Act, free frank "Saml. Ward Philadelphia" on two folded covers (undated, without content, circa 1774-75), one to Henry Ward at Providence with ms. "Free" in another hand, presumably applied at the Philadelphia post office, the other to Polly Ward at Westerly R.I. with ms. "Phila 6:16" postmark and dark brown "19/OC" Franklin mark on back, former has light stains, otherwise Very Fine, two rare free franks from this great American patriot, who attended the first two Continental Congresses but succumbed to small pox in March 1776 because he refused inoculation during an epidemic in Philadelphia—had Ward lived, he would have proudly signed the Declaration of Independence—the First Continental Congress was held Sep. 5 to Oct. 26, 1774, and the Second from May 10, 1775, to Dec. 12, 1776, thus it is likely that the "6:16" rated cover was mailed during the First Congress E. 1,000-1,500

Dateline on letter requesting payment to Peter Mumford for notifying the public regarding a law of the colony inserted in a paper regarding Small Pox, fresh and Very Fine, Peter Mumford would become one of the first postmasters of Rhode Island*Not illustrated* E. 100-150

"Sh 4.16" ship-letter rate, Very Fine, any contemporary reference to the Boston Massacre is unusual in letter correspondence E. 500-750

1794

- 1794 ☒ PHILA. SEP. 5 (1776). Straightline datestamp across backflap of folded letter from William Tilghman to Maj. Washington's, New York", letter datelined "Phila. Augt. 27, 1776", slight wear and toning

VERY FINE. AN OUTSTANDING REVOLUTIONARY WAR-PERIOD LETTER SENT THRU THE MAIL TO THE AIDE-DE-CAMP OF GENERAL HORATIO GATES AT FORT TICONDEROGA, IN CARE OF GENERAL WASHINGTON'S AIDE-DE-CAMP, TENCH TILGHMAN.

This fascinating 2½ page letter was written by William Tilghman at 20 years of age, who later served as Chief Justice of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court and was one of the "midnight judges" appointed by President Adams to the Third Circuit Court in 1801. He was the grandson of Tench Francis and the brother of Tench Tilghman, a Revolutionary War soldier who served as an aide-de-camp to General Washington at Valley Forge. Tench Tilghman also served as secretary and treasurer to the Continental Congress in 1775. The letter begins with favorable mention of the promotion of James Wilkinson and laments the vacant social scene of Philadelphia (his comments are made weeks after the Declaration of Independence). Tilghman continues with a direct reference to General Burgoyne's movements and potential to join forces with General Howe: "But it is feared that our Army has suffered almost too much from sickness and the rigors of the last campaign. If you can surmount these difficulties, by your activity and courage, your honor will be immortal. Much is expected from Genl. Gates, and he seems to be looked up to, to retrieve the desperate Affairs of Canada." The writer then gives a heartfelt commentary on war and peace: "But you and I, my Friend, shall be laid low, before the tender frame of the Infant States, can recover from those violent convulsions that are to usher them into Being." Tilghman states that he is giving this letter to Tench Coxe (a relative) "who will forward it by the first opportunity." Based on this remark, the forwarding notation on the address panel was probably written by Tench Coxe.

According to <http://www.2ndpa-43rdfoot.com/history.html>: "The colonel of the 13th, 23-year-old Walter Stewart, became the Second's [Second Pennsylvania Regiment's] new commander. The young officer, nicknamed 'The Irish Beauty' by the ladies of Philadelphia, was a close friend of Anthony Wayne's and well acquainted with Washington as well. He was an able leader with a reputation of taking care of the welfare of his men. Diarist Joseph Plumb Martin described him as 'an excellent officer, much beloved and respected by the troops of the Line he belonged to.' E. 2,000-3,000
